

THE TOP 10 | SHOPPING

Indiana Dunes Country is a great place for shopping, whether you're looking for downtown boutiques, outlet shopping or an outdoors superstore. Click here to see alphabetical listings or search by shopping category.

1. Downtown Valparaiso

Enjoy charming boutiques with unique clothing, accessories, gifts, sweet treats and more. While downtown, get your picture taken with the statue of popcorn king Orville Redenbacher, enjoy events in the park or dine local.

2. Downtown Chesterton

With great shops selling gifts, clothing, jewelry and items for the home, downtown Chesterton is a fun place to stroll. Also enjoy the gazebo in the downtown park or dine at the one-of-a-kind eateries.

3. Bass Pro Shops, Portage

Indiana Dunes Country is an outdoors destination, with great hiking, kayaking and fishing opportunities. Gear up at Bass Pro Shops, an outdoor lover's paradise. And be sure to dine at the in-store Islamorada Fish Company.

4. Chesterton's European Market

Located in downtown Chesterton, this outdoor market features local fruits and vegetables, artisan pastries, cheese, art, jewelry, clothing and more. Visit 8 a.m.-2 p.m. CST on Saturdays, May to October.

5. Lighthouse Place Premium Outlets

Located just east of the Indiana Dunes, Lighthouse Place features legendary brands, abundant selection and 25 to 65 percent savings every day.

6. Made in Indiana Dunes Country

Looking for one-of-a-kind gifts or something to remember your time in Indiana Dunes Country? Made in Indiana Dunes Country products include art, apparel, home decor and more.

7. Antiques

Indiana Dunes Country is home to a great variety of antiques dealers, including several in Chesterton. Whether you love books, furniture, jewelry, china or fun trinkets, this is the place to shop.

8. Art Galleries

Chesterton is an art-centric community where you'll find dunes paintings and photographs and much more, while Valparaiso is home to a growing gallery scene.

9. Resale Shops

It's hard to say what is better: finding one-of-a-kind items that you love, or getting them at bargain prices. Indiana Dunes Country has a thriving resale shop scene with some true treasures.

10. Chicago's Magnificent Mile, Shipshewana and Amish Country

Stay in Indiana Dunes Country, where lodging is affordable and where you're near the dunes and lake. Then take a day trip to Chicago to shop along the famous Michigan Avenue, or shop the Shipshewana Flea Market and Amish Country.